Receiver Henry Submits Certificates to Special Judge Baker.

Affairs of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Company

Certificates to be issued by the receiver for the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the construction work were submitted to Special Judge James P. Baker in Superior Court No. 2 at Indianapolis, this morning. The money obtained on these certificates is to be used for the Greensburg and Connersville extensions now under way.

Yesterday Judge Baker approved the allowance of the salary of Charles L. Henry, receiver, as president of the road, at $5000 a year, and also an agreement made between the receiver and the firm of Goodloe & Kennedy, accountants, for an examination of the company's books, which has been asked by the bondholders.

The receiver was also authorized to pay out of the funds of the company now in his hands the sum of $10,000 to liquidate outstanding accounts against the road. In addition, Judge Baker ordered that the receiver draw $416.66 a month, as pay for his service as receiver, this being the amount which Mr. Henry draws as president and general manager of the road.

The receiver's petition, to be allowed to issue receiver's certificates to the amount of $900,000 to pay for the completion of the construction and for the equipment of the Rushville-Connersville and the Shelbyville-Greensburg extensions of the road, was heard by Judge Baker this morning and granted.

J. E. Spradling yesterday afternoon, disposed of his livery barn, on the southeast corner of Julian and Second streets to Charles Myers, living east of Sexton, son of George Meyers. Mr. Meyers takes possession next Wednesday.

Mr. Spradling has formed a partnership with his brother, V. M. Spradling, of Frankfort, who makes a business of importing and selling stallions and fine horses. Although his business headquarters will be located at Frankfort, Mr. Spradling's family will remain in Rushville.

NEW PRINCIPAL FOR HIGH SCHOOL

E. A. Lanning Resigns and is Succeeded by Prof. M. R. McDaniel.

The city school board, in session last night, accepted the resignation of Prof. E. A. Lanning, as principal of the high school. Mr. Lanning is now at Chicago. He has accepted a splendid position in the schools at Aspen, Colorado, where he and his bride will locate this fall.

The board has elected Prof. M. R. McDaniel, who has had charge of the Science department in the local school for some time, to the principalship. Mr. McDaniel is a deserving young man, is popular with the scholars, teachers and school patrons, and is fully qualified for the position. His record here has been an enviable one and his promotion is but the natural consequence. The discipline of the high school is certain to reach a high standard under Prof. McDaniel's direction. His successor in the science has not yet been selected.

Prof. Lanning has made a very popular teacher here and his host of friends and the scholars and school patrons regret to see him leave. As his new position is in the line of promotion, however, they can but wish him splendid success in his new field.

SPREADING VIPER CAUGHT ON FARM

One of the Most Poisonous Reptiles in Existence—Scarce in These Parts

Hargrove & Mullin have on exhibition in the show window at their store, a four-foot snake of the spreading viper species that was captured about two weeks ago by Oliver Swain in a field on his farm, southwest of Arlington.

Mr. Swain was passing through the field when he was warned by the hissing of the snake. He stunned the reptile and taking it to the house, placed it in a box. The snake recovered from the blow.

Yesterday Mr. Swain brought the reptile to County Superintendent Headlee, who chloroformed it and placed it on exhibition in a can of alcohol at the drug store.

The spreading viper is very scarce in this locality. It is one of the most poisonous reptiles on earth. The snake's head spreads to ten times its normal size just before it makes an attack. Its bite is certain death.

Mrs. Allison VanMancee returned to Shelbyville this afternoon, after a visit with her brother, Joseph Dickman and family, of this city.

NOTHING DONE BY COUNCIL

The City Dads Meet But Take Very Little Action.

No Brick Pavement on Tenth Street—The Claims Allowed.

Last night's special meeting of the city council was pretty much of a farce. All members of council were present, and Mayor Hall presided, but no action was taken beyond an effort to settle the Tenth street controversy. J. Feudner protested against the amount of his assessment on the new Sixth street walks, but as the remonstrance was filed too late, the assessments having been confirmed, the matter was laid on the table indefinitely.

A remonstrance filed by Charles Hugo, Edward Crosby and other Tenth street property owners, protesting against paving Tenth street with brick, carried, and the council's former action was rescinded, including the withdrawal of the resolution adopted providing for a brick street.

A. B. Irvin, who petitioned council for a brick street, was present and took exceptions in no uncertain terms at the council's action.

Council allowed Worth & Bowen $165.25, the balance of their bill for piping the new water wells, and allowed the Warwick company, $15 for a quantity of crushed stone purchased at the I. & C. power house.

Councilman Frazee started to move that the resolutions introduced for the improvement of Fourth, Eighth and Tenth streets, be confirmed, but Mayor Hall, as an attorney representing J. P. Fairley, one of the Fourth street remonstrators, objected to the Fourth street resolutions being confirmed. Councilman Frazee stopped the discussion with a motion to adjourn. This was seconded by Mr. Young and carried.

Councilman Young, who lives on Fourth street, has already laid his new cement walks and at the meeting last night, Mayor Hall asserted that Mr. Young had no right to lay the walks at a grade other than the proper one without action by council.

ANOTHER BARN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Harry Colter Suffers Heavy Loss Friday Night—The Horses Saved.

The large barn on the old John Plough farm, one mile north of Richland, now occupied by Harry Colter, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock this morning. The fire was discovered just in time to save four horses and a colt that were in the barn. The roof fell in immediately after the horses were removed.

A double corn crib, near the barn, containing 100 bushels of corn was also destroyed. Other than the horses, all the contents of the barn were destroyed, including ten sets of harness, three buggies, a cart, three wagons and thirty tons of hay. The contents of the barn were insured, but there was no insurance on the barn itself. The total loss is estimated at $2500.

The cause of the fire is unknown. However, there was both old and new hay in the mow, where the blaze started, and spontaneous combustion, it is believed, may have had some thing to do with it.

Frank McBride is preparing to open a general store in the room formerly occupied by Joe Gobel's drug store in Mays, within the next few days.

A number of young men dressed as clowns, were out in a cab this afternoon with a set of drums, advertising the Catholic carnival to be held next week.

LADY VEACH IS LAID UP

Fell in a Race at Ottawa, Ill.—Will Be Shipped Home.

Lady Veatch, 2:24 1/4, a fine pacing mare owned by John J. Veach, of Walker township, that won many races last season and had a prospect for still higher honors this year, was stricken with heart trouble and fell to the track in a race at Ottawa, Ill., Thursday, of this week. Her trainer, Riley Nebro, has been notified to ship her home. She will be retired from the track. Her condition is thought to be due to overwork two years ago.

I. & C. WILL RUN TRACTION CAR

People Will Be Transported to and From Old Settlers Meeting.

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company has agreed to run a car to and from the fair grounds at short intervals, on Thursday, August ninth, to accommodate those who wish to attend the annual meeting of the old settlers of Rush county. This will enable a large number of people to attend.

The program for the meeting is being arranged. Good speaking and good music will be features and an enjoyable time is assured. Judge John O. Robinson, of Spencer, and Congressman Watson have been engaged as the speakers. Mrs. Mary Conover will recite several poems, and a quartet, composed of Dr. F. R. McClanahan, Congressman Watson, Claude Thomas and B. F. Miller, will sing. The Diapason singing society will also furnish music.

The Rush County Old Settlers' meeting is each year a source of reunion for pioneers who lived here, and knew one another years ago. Acquaintances are renewed and formed and the happenings of years gone by are re-told and enjoyed. An effort is being made to make this year's meeting one of the best that the old settlers have ever held. Each year sees the ranks grow thinner and thinner, but many are now gone, but those who are still living hope to make this year's meeting a big success. An invitation is extended to everyone to come with their dinner baskets and stay all day.

"IS OUT AGAIN THEN IN AGAIN"

Hon. Mike Ryan Can't Let Booze Alone at Connersville.

The Connersville News of Friday says: "Mike Ryan, the forty-day boarder at the jail, has at times been treated as a 'trustee' and allowed to go outside on errands.

"Last evening he was sent to the livery stables across the alley, by Deputy Dan Jeffrey, but failed to return. Dan searched the saloons nearby, but failed to find him. The police were notified and soon came upon Mike, who in the meantime had 'booze' up and got into a fight with 'Curly,' another police character, and both were run in. Whether this last escapade will entitle Mike to an extension of his free board privileges after his present credit for meals and lodging expires, will develop later. Ryan was fined with costs $13.80 today, in Justice Cates' court, which 'pays' his board more than three weeks ahead."

THE LAW IS STILL VALID

Important Ruling on Nicholson Law Made in Laporte Court.

Contention that New Code Repealed Five Sections of Law is Not Sustained

Laporte, Ind., July 28.—Judge Richter in the Laporte circuit court has held that the legislature of 1905 in adopting the new criminal codification code, which omitted five important sections of the Nicholson law passed in 1895, did not repeal these sections but that action can still be brought under them against saloon keepers who fail to remove screens on Sunday and between 11 p. m. and 5 a. m., who allow persons other than members of their families to be in their places of business during hours when the sale of intoxicants is prohibited; who permit music in their saloons, who allow erection of partitions and whose places of business do not open in a street.

This ruling came in three cases against local saloon keepers, brought for failure to remove screens on Sunday, and for permitting persons in their places of business on Sunday. It is understood that the defendants will appeal cases to the supreme court.

MRS. OL. HARCOURT SUES FOR DIVORCE

Demands $3,000 Alimony and Asks Restraining Order.

Mrs. Minnie E. Harcourt, today, through her attorneys, Smith, Campbell & Smith, filed suit for divorce and alimony against her husband, Oliver Harcourt. Besides $3000 alimony, a divorce, Mrs. Harcourt asks a restraining order prohibiting the defendant from disposing of any of his property until after the case is heard. The Harcourts live in Orange township.

DRURY HOLT IS INJURED

Rush County Man Was in Wreck in Missouri Thursday.

Drury Holt, a pension agent of Indianapolis, wired relatives here that he was bruised in the passenger train wreck on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, Thursday night, near Springfield, Mo. About twenty persons were hurt, R. J. Thorp and Mrs. Kate Shortey, both of Missouri, perhaps fatally.

The wreck was caused by a defective switch. Three coaches passed over in safety, but the fourth left the track and turned over. This coach contained about 60 persons. Two sleeping cars did not leave the track. Mr. Holt's home is in Rush county, but his office is in Indianapolis. It is not known just how badly Mr. Holt is injured.

Miss Beatrice Merrill, of Muncie, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cordelia Green.

Horatio Havens, of Dayton O., is the guest of his father, George H. Havens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lord, of Mays, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Young today.

Harry Gardner, of Shirley, is spending a few days with Charles Whitton, of near Mays.

TRACTION MAN IS ARRESTED

Lloyd Florea Charged With Stealing Suit Case—Found at Main Street House.

Before breakfast this morning, Sheriff King arrested Lloyd Florea, of Metamora, at the Main Street House, where he boarded, and placed him in jail on the charge of stealing a suit case and clothing belonging to Dennis Swim, of East Connersville. Swim was here yesterday and brought about the arrest. Connersville officers came here at 10:46 and returned with Florea at 11:44. Florea, it is said, had the suit case with him when arrested. He was employed on the traction line.

IMPALED ON A PITCHFORK HANDLE

Shelby County Farmer May Die as Result of Injury.

W. E. Copple, an aged farmer of Shelby county, while loading shocked wheat Friday morning, fell from the load to the ground. In his hand was a pitchfork with the end of the handle broken off. In the fall the sharp point caught Copple in the right breast, and the weight of his body drove the wooden fork handle into his body. It required three men to extract it. Copple will probably die.

BY THE WAYSIDE

"A good one is going the rounds on Geston P. Hunt, the popular hardware merchant. Recently Gess went frog hunting with a party of young people. He filled a lantern with coal oil and made everything ready at the store for the departure. When the party reached the river it fell to Mr. Hunt's lot, inasmuch as he is said to be quite a lady's man, with a peculiar aversion to handling 'dirty, slimy frogs,' to remain with the ladies, and establish camp. Moonlight was rather scarce and it was decided to press Mr. Hunt's lantern into service.

Two of our charming young women, Misses Hattie Caldwell and Cora Winship, who were in the party, confidentially removed the lantern from Mr. Hunt's buggy. They were given a plentiful supply of matches. The matches were used one by one in an effort to light the lantern. But it was no go. The wick was altered and adjusted, and the lantern was subjected to the most minute examination and difficult tests. The wick steadfastly refused to illuminate.

"Here, I'll fix the thing," offered the accommodating Geston, and with a sort of a 'watch me' air he advanced to the attack. First one match was used then another, until the supply ran low. G. P. Hunt was puzzled. "Wonder what's the matter with this thing anyhow," he ventured.

"It beats me," came a chorus of pretty voices from the darkness.

"Well, it certainly takes the cake," G. P. ran his hands through his locks and his brows came together with a bang. A thought came creeping into his brain. "I wonder if they have," he mused. "Well, I'll see."

G. P. seized the lantern and removed the cap from the bowl in the bottom. Then he struck a match and placed it in the opening. The match went out.

"U-hum!" ejaculated Mr. Hunt. "I thought so. Confound those fellows. If I find out who did that it will be a sorry day for him."

Geston P. Hunt is still looking for the fellow who removed the coal oil from his lantern at the store and poured in water instead. Perhaps Jim Dill can tell him something about it.

CHILD IN A MONKEY CAGE

Congressman Watson Makes a Discovery at Hagerstown Fair.

He Subdues Little Girl With Kind Words—Will Take Action.

A dispatch from Richmond to the Indianapolis Star says: "At the request of C. M. Ginter, of Hagerstown, Congressman James E. Watson visited the Midway at the Hagerstown fair and investigated the alleged cruelty to a 10-year-old girl, who, bound by chains, was being kept as a wild girl in a filthy pen with monkeys, a large owl and a stuffed two-headed calf, and was being fed raw meat in the presence of horrified spectators, while a barker stood in front of the show and shouted to the crowd of the ferocious character of the captive, which he termed a native of the lowlands in the Philippines.

"Mr. Watson, as soon as he saw the child, held out his hand to her. Her chains rattling, she jumped from her bed of straw and attempted to bite and scratch him. Mr. Watson did not move his hand, however, and the girl, as he had expected, did not bite him. Seeing that he was not merely a curiosity seeker, she took his hand between hers and her pretty black eyes looked into his face pathetically.

"Mr. Watson directed some questions at her relative to her age and such, but she did not answer. Sanders, the showman, giving his home as Arkansas, was summoned and was asked for an explanation about the girl. He began the story of how she, with her mother, had been captured by a man-of-war in the Philippines and both brought to this country, where the mother died and the girl fell into his hands, but Mr. Watson declined to believe the yarn and demanded to know the truth about the child. The man said that it was his own daughter. The father declared the child was 15 years of age, could read and write and was intelligent.

"When asked questions the girl would not answer, and her father explained that she only understood the German language. Mr. Watson then attempted to converse with her in German, and asked her many questions in that language, but the girl either stood stupidly or merely nodded or shook her head in reply.

"Mr. Watson expressed his contempt for the showman in no mild terms, and told him that whether the child was his or belonged to another that it should not be allowed to remain in such a vile place. Mr. Watson thought the proper authorities to appeal to would be the prosecuting attorney, Wilfred Jessup, but as he is in Evansville, the matter was allowed to rest temporarily. The fair at Hagerstown closed this afternoon, and Sanders will go to Middletown, Ind., to exhibit at the fair there next week. Mr. Watson intends to appeal to the authorities there to investigate the case."

Speaker Cannon was expected here tomorrow for a short visit with Congressman Watson, but it was learned today that he is in Connecticut and cannot get here.

The choir of St. Paul's M. E. church gave a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas, who leave soon for their new home in Moore's Hill, Ind., last night in the church parlors.

Mrs. Lillie Dugan, daughters, Grace and Bernice and son Hugh, of Urbana, Ill., who have been the guests of Mrs. Albert Morris, of Noble township, will come tomorrow for a week's visit with Mrs. Elizabeth Meggee, of North Main street.

T. A. Craig has returned from a two days business stay at Westport.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meggee and Mrs. Alice Lakin, of this city, Mrs. Albert Morris, of Noble township, and Mrs. Lillie Dugan, of Urbana, Ill., spent yesterday with Mrs. Dollie Junken, near Henderson.

ADVERTISING RATES—made known upon application at this office.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JULY 28, 1906.

It is well to keep in mind the fact that the Republicans of Indiana have not paid more than seven millions of the State debt in ten years by excessive tax levies, but by economy in the management of the State's business and by applying to the purpose the proceeds of a law that requires the fees received in the State offices to be turned into the treasury for the use and benefit of the people.

The Elkhart Review states the case with great clearness in the following paragraph:

"The general public can easily believe Senator Hemenway's assertion that LaFollette was at heart an enemy of the railroad rate bill, and really attempted to embarrass President Roosevelt, rather than to assist him. Lafollette is open and above board only when he wants to deceive the public or some individual. He is one of those men who by nature act the opposite of their conviction in order to deceive."

Fort Wayne News: The Democratic orators this fall will turn their batteries of invective and hatred upon Governor Hanly, recognizing that something must be done to dissipate the excellent impression he has made upon the public by his attacks on official corruption. If the Democrats imagine, however, that by personal abuse of the governor they will be able to prejudice the public mind against him they are very much in error. Governor Hanly's fight against wickedness in high places has naturally made him enemies, but for every such one twenty friends have flocked to his standard. And they are the sort of people who will resent at the polls the vicious arraignment of him which is proposed by Tom Taggart, the gambling king of French Lick. Let the mud mortars open their bombardment. Governor Hanly is entrenched in public favor and a consciousness of a great work well done.

Local shippers scored an important point when the railroad commission reduced the freight on the Vandalia between here and the Illinois state line 33 1-3 per cent. Schnull & Co., wholesale grocers, filed a petition some time ago alleging that the rates were too high and out of proportion with those fixed by the interstate commerce commission. Many shippers were interested in the test, which is to be the starter toward petitioning the commission to lower freight rates throughout the entire state.

Perry S. Heath was here today. He dropped in at the Grand hotel and inquired for his old friend, T. Taggart.
Taggart had gone to Chicago. Mr.
Heath is looking fine. He and Mrs.
Heath will leave soon to spend several weeks at Nantucket for the particular benefit of Mrs. Heath, who is afflicted with hay fever.

A SEVERE CALL-DOWN

State Will Not Stand for Misleading Insurance Ads.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 28.—The Indiana life insurance companies will not be permitted to solicit business on the guarantee that the state is standing sponsor for the faithful performance of the contracts with the policy holders. Auditor Bigler has sent a circular letter to the life companies calling their attention to misleading advertising they are doing and commanding them to stop it penalty of having their charters revoked. A favorite form of advertisement which has come under the official ban follows: "The state of Indiana guarantees the faithful performance of all provisions of the contract." This clause has been inserted in thousands of contracts issued by the companies and thousands of policy holders have thus been deceived. Auditor Big-ler says such a statement is absolutely misleading and without the bounds of propriety. "The state does not guarantee the faithful performance of any contract," he said. "All the legal reserve law of the state guarantees is that the re-insurance reserve will be protected absolutely. The policy holders are protected to the extent of the re-insurance reserve." The auditor said that not all of the companies in the state have been guilty of using the misleading ads.

W. V. Rooker, prominent Democratic attorney, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for congress in this district. Rooker is confident that he will stand a good chance of

CONGRESSMAN JESSE OVERSTREET OF IN-DIANA.

winning notwithstanding the heavy normal Republican majority. He has a strong following among the organized laborers, who are being urged to fight Congressman Jesse Overstreet.
Chairman Theo. Davis announces that the congressional convention will be held Aug. 14.

Ex-Judge Franklin McCray announced today that he will become an independent candidate for congress in this district. He declares there is a trust among Republicans that controls the party and makes nearly all nominations. Anti-machine Republicans are urging him to run.

The contract for erecting a new state institution for the deaf and dumb north of the state fair grounds has been let by Governor Hanly and the board of control to Heinman Bros., of Noblesville. The new buildings, fully equipped, will cost about $700,- 000.

Kept His Wife Locked Up.
South Bend, Ind., July 28.—After a commission had adjudged him to be insane, the authorities have decided to send William Kessler back to his old home in Pennsylvania because there is no room for him at Longcliff.
Kessler for nearly two years kept his wife locked in a house in this city and compelled her to sleep on a drygoods box. Their household goods were never unpacked.

Bomb Throwing in New York.
New York, July 28.—Six men were injured last night by the explosion at Sixteenth street and Third avenue of a bomb believed to have been thrown from an elevated railroad train. The explosion took place in a group of about a hundred plumbers who were standing in front of Teutonia hall waiting for a meeting to begin.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., July 28.—The sheriff raided the gambling resorts of this city and confiscated all the gambling paraphernalia, which probably will be burned publicly at the courthouse square Monday. Those arrested pleaded not guilty.

Charged With Incendiarism.
Marion, Ind., July 28.—Fire destroyed a barn owned by George Garrison, assessor of Jefferson township, consuming the crops recently harvested and causing a loss of $2,000, with but $700 insurance. Benjamin Welch, twenty-four years old, a nephew of Garrison, has been arrested, accused of connection with the fire, the cause of which is attributed to incendiarism.
Welch is said to have threatened to get even because Garrison refused to indorse his note for $20.

Due to Spontaneous Combustion.
Rushville, Ind., July 28.—By the destruction of the large barn and contents on the farm of Joseph Horton near this city, five horses were cremated. New hay had been placed in the mow on top of the old, and the cause is attributed to spontaneous combustion.

ARMED UPRISING A PITCHED BATTLE

Kharkov Promises to Lead In Lighting the Fires
of Revolution.

FOR A NEW REPUBLIC

Plans Are Now Being Laid For the Re-Proclamation of the Republic of Kharkov in the Autumn.

Its s'an Troops in That Province Have Aim at Constantly Fraternized
With the Strikers.

Kharkov, July 28.—The revolutionists are actively preparing for an armed uprising and a re-proclamation of the republic of Kharkov in the autumn.
The French vice consul here has received very disquieting news from French industrial establishments. At Yuzvka, the principal smelting center in the south of Russia, 40,000 workmen have armed themselves and have organized a disciplined rifle legion of 1,000 members under former army officers. The Russian troops are useless in the emergency, having fraternized with the strikers almost continuously.
The workmen's demands amount practically to confiscation of the plants.

Efforts Came to Naught.
St. Petersburg, July 28.—The efforts of the revolutionary parties, except the Rightists, in the late lower house of parliament, which at the proper moment were to proclaim a provisional government, have come to naught owing to the opposition of the Constitutional Democrats, who apparently are afraid of compromising themselves, while one wing, headed by M. Naboukoff, showed that they already had been won over to the side of the ministry against the program of open revolution.

Government Spies Slain.
St. Petersburg, July 28.—Half a dozen government spies were found dead in the industrial section of St.
Petersburg. Political assassinations are increasing in Poland, and small strikes are reported to have been declared in many places in the provinces.

Closed the Singer Shop.
Warsaw, July 28.—A party of Socialists forced their way into the Singer sewing machine shop here and fired several shots, compelling the closing of the shop.

JUST AS EXPECTED
The Will of Russell Sage Bequeaths
Nothing to Charity.

New York, July 28.—Except for a few small bequests to relatives, the fortune of Russell Sage is left to his widow. There is no charitable bequest in the will. There is nothing in the will to indicate the value of Mr.
Sage's estate.

Each of Mr. Sage's nephews and nieces will receive $25,000, and there is a bequest of $10,000 to Mr. Sage's sister, Mrs. Chapin, now dead. The section bequeathing the bulk of the estate to Mrs. Sage reads that she is "to have and hold the same absolutely and forever."

The executors of the will are Mrs.
Sage, Dr. John P. Munn, for many years Mr. Sage's physician, and Chas.
W. Osborn, who has had charge of Mr. Sage's office in this city.
While there is nothing in the will to show the value of Mr. Sage's estate, attorneys for Mrs. Sage estimate it at between $70,000,000 and $80,000,000, of which amount about $30,000,000 is outstanding in loans.

Standard Oil on the Rack.
Chicago, July 28.—Standard Oil company methods of transporting its products are to be investigated Aug. 6, when a federal court grand jury will convene in Chicago to take testimony on that subject. The decision to do so a special grand jury was reached late yesterday afternoon after an all day's conference between the government lawyers in the case and Judge Landis in the United States district court who then issued the order for the jury.

Insanity Is the Plea.
Birmingham, Ala., July 28.—Judge Samuel L. Weaver of the criminal court granted a writ of habeas corpus in the case of John Williams of Cullman, Ala., just twelve hours before the time set for the execution of the prisoner for the murder of State Senator R. L. Hipp. The petition for the writ of habeas corpus was made on an insanity plea.

Teaching the Soldiers.
Washington, July 28.—Three camps of instruction for the regular army and national guard have been opened.
These are at Mt. Gretna, Pa.; Chickamauga Park, Ga., and Austin, Tex.
Four additional camps will be established before August 1, at American Lake, Wash.; Fort Riley, Kan.; Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., and Fort D.
A. Russell, Wyo.

There Was No Panic.
Salem, Ore., July 28.—Fire broke out in the upper portion of the north wing of the state asylum for the insane here. There was no panic among the inmates nor any loss of life. The loss is only about $25,000.

John Dietz Still Holds the Fort Against All Comers.

SOLDIERS CALLED OUT

Governor Davidson Has Ordered Two Companies to Storm Dietz's Stronghold at All Hazards.

Dietz and His Family Are Strongly Intrenched in Their Position at Cameron Dam.

Ladysmith, Wis., July 28.—Five of the six militiamen who engaged in the fight in the effort to capture John Dietz are reported to have reached Winter, the nearest town to Cameron dam. The sixth man is supposed to be the one who was shot. The militi-men were acting as individuals in a sheriff's posse, not as state soldiers.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., July 28.—It is learned from friends of Governor Davidson, who visited Chippewa Falls yesterday that Company C and another company to be chosen will be ordered to Cameron dam. The sheriff of Sawyer county has reported to the governor that he has again exhausted his efforts to take John Dietz, who

JAMES A. DAVIDSON, GOVERNOR OF WIS-CONSIN.

has been holding the Cameron dam against the Mississippi Log and Boom company. The men will be ordered to take him dead or alive. No time will be lost in making the attempt.

Thomas Rice, the cook for the party of officers that went to arrest Dietz, has returned to this city, the party having given up the idea of taking Dietz. Rice says the story of the battle was not exaggerated. There was fifteen minutes of terrible battle and the six members of the Dietz family with rifles waged against the seven officers an incessant fusillade of bullets which tore through the trees on the Dietz farm.

Dietz informed the men that he had enough ammunition to last three months and intended to use it. He has a strong fort and will resist.

IMPORTANT ADMISSION
Another Letter Is Now Involved in the Hartje Case.

Pittsburg, July 28.—Susie Wagner, formerly a maid in the employ of the Hartje household, was a witness for Mr. Hartje in his suit for divorce.
That Susie Wagner received three letters from Mrs. Hartje while in Germany was brought out. Hitherto only two letters had been mentioned, one of them being the disputed letter known as exhibit No. 6. Miss Wagner said she gave the second letter to "Ed" Hartje in New York. Mrs. Har-tje's attorneys have contended all along that exhibit No. 6 was a forged reproduction of another letter. The admission that the second letter reached the Hartje side two months before No. 6 is regarded as important in view of the contention of Mrs. Hartje's counsel. The hearing has been adjourned until next week, when in two or three days it is expected the taking of evidence will be completed.

The Rawlingses Must Hang.
Atlanta, Ga., July 28.—The supreme court of Georgia has denied the motion for a new trial for Jesse and Milton Rawlings, charged with complicity in the murder of the Carter children near Valdosta more than a year ago.
The motion, which did not include J. G. Rawlings nor the negro Alf Moore, was made on the grounds of newly discovered evidence. The execution of the quartette, which has been three times postponed, is now set for next Friday, Aug. 3.

Obituary.

Mary A. Redenbaugh died at Franklin, Ind., July 23d, 1906. She was the daughter of Robert and Sarah McDuffee and was born in Orange township, Rush county, Ind., May 18th, 1838, and was at the time of her death 78 years, 2 months and 5 days old.

Her father was a local preacher in the M. E. church and did faithful and heroic service for the church in the early history of Rush county. In those days the local preacher was looked to as a very important factor in the church and in the absence of the circuit preacher, cared for the flock.

November 3d, 1853, Mary A. McDuffee was united in marriage to Philip Redenbaugh; to them were born ten children; five are yet living: Alpheus T., of Columbus; Ulysses G., of Shelbyville; Robert M., and Elbert M., of Rush county; and Stella M., now Forsythe, of Franklin.

Her home had been in Orange township, near her birthplace, all her life except the last nine months she lived at Franklin so as to be near her daughter, at whose home she died.

When she was 15 years old she united with the M. E. church under the ministry of Rev. George Havens and was a faithful member until death.

She had been in poor health for eight years and for four years very much afflicted in mind and body, but the religion she professed was a great source of comfort. She spent much time in singing and the old hymns were her delight. She was a good neighbor, ever ready to lend a helping hand. Besides her aged husband and children she leaves many friends to mourn her.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Scull, at Blue Ridge. Burial at Moscow. J. T. S.

What Mrs. James Brooks, 515 Harrison St., Says

I bought a piano from Carlin & Lennox Piano House of Indianapolis and am pleased to say that it is perfectly grand.

All who have tried it pronounce it the best in the city, which I believe it to be. I will be glad to show it to any one who likes to look at a beautiful piano.

You would be very much surprised to know how reasonable I bought this fine piano. I would advise you to see their agent, Mr. E. H. Fee and get his price and terms. Respectfully, MRS. JAMES BROOKS, 515 Harrison St.

Card of Thanks.

Philip Redenbaugh and children desire through this paper to express their thanks to their neighbors and friends for their kindness and assistance during the sickness of their dear wife and mother and for their sympathy in their great loss.

PEOPLES' COLUMN

Under this head we will print short discussions of public questions and timely topics, but the Republican will not be responsible for the opinions expressed—they are the opinions of the writers and not of the Republican. Nothing of a libelous nature or personal reflection will be printed. The writer must confine themselves to the question discussed. While the articles may be signed by a nom de plume, the name of the writer must be signed for identification.

"Citizen" Was Mad Because He Didn't Get a Ticket

Since my old Murray taught me that some words may denote either male or female, I shall assume "Citizen," the writer of "Show Courtesies" in Thursday's Jacksonian to be a severely moral middle-aged lady, who couldn't vote for Mr. Watson if she wanted. I don't think she is an old lady, because she was evidently on her way to the show when she espied "Our Jim" hypnotizing that "manager" into giving out that bunch of complimentary tickets for himself and lady friends. Ah, Jim, you simple rascal! Why didn't you mesmerize "Citizen" into accepting one of your complimentary tickets? Then you would not have been read into the ethics of politics and financial economics and the rest of us informed of the self-evident fact, "Our Jim is not acety official."

Ladies at best are a bit peculiar, and when one arrives at that uncertain age, beyond which are so many uncertainties, she becomes extremely susceptible to slights, real or imaginary. If "Jim" had only "mesmerized" that showman out of one more ticket, peradventure we should not have known that "Our Jim is the same as a private citizen" when not doing acrobatic stunts in Congress on the Porto Rican tariff. And he didn't pay his way into "the dog show!" Why bless your simple soul, didn't you know that a Congressman, who couldn't run on his good looks and personal magnetism wasn't worth a darn—ing needle?

We voters know all about "Jim's" mesmeric powers. That's why we're going to keep him in congress till—well, till he gets too enormously big for the place. And, just let me tell "Citizen" and all the other ladies "Our Jim" is growing to beat the band. A VOTER.

A Plea for the Negro.

Mr. Editor I wish to make this statement concerning the negro:

The American people have suffered on account of him, not from any fault of his, but as the fruit of their own sin. They established liberty for all their fellows, save the black man—him they consigned to ignominious slavery.

God saw fit to arrange matters differently, therefore he willed the election of Mr. Lincoln. At his election the Southerners became confused and seceded from the Union. The great Lincoln tried, in every way, to reconcile them, but without avail. The rebellion was on, necessitating Mr. Lincoln's call for seventy-five thousand men for three months' service. Our country was greatly moved and another call was made for two hundred and fifty thousand men for two and three years' service.

As I think of it now, I wonder at the host of men who laid themselves on their country's altar. Mothers, your sons were there; some were in the hospital others slain upon the bloody field. Why this devastating war? Slavery! This awful crime made thousands of widows and orphans, left thousands of men permanently maimed, and sent almost a million of men untimely to their graves. Who does not rejoice that slavery is dead, and that the terrible Civil war is now a memory?

Surely the old soldier is glad that the smoke has lifted from the battle fields, that the weary marches are over, and that he can now spend his declining days at home, surrounded by loved ones and friends. He should join in with the Negro and set apart a day of each year for praising God for the victory given unto them. God commanded Israel whom he led across the Red Sea to keep the day of his deliverance in remembrance as long as he lived.

We want to have a sermon on the 12th of August, in commemoration of God's blotting out slavery and thereby saving the Union. It is proper that the Negro each year set apart a day commemorating this great event.

He went into the army and fought for his own freedom, and thus helped at the same time to save the Union. On the 12th of August, we ask every good citizen, every old soldier, and every ex-slave to come to the Rush county fair grounds and assist us in God's praise for the great fight victoriously concluded, for "liberty and union."

No one can afford to stay away. We are all glad of the change. The old slave block is banished. Mothers are sold no more from weeping children. Freedom is here. But to the Negro, happiness is not complete, for gray-haired mothers and fathers yet yearn for and hope in vain to meet, perchance, the loved ones, sold from them during the accursed reign of American slavery.

I appeal to my countrymen, white and black, to come out on August 12th, take a part with us, and help us to sing, "Glory, hallelujah, as we go marching on."

REV. T. T. CARPENTER.
